

Executive biography

Brian Sathianathan

Co-Founder and CTO/CDO

Iterate.ai

Professional:

Brian began his career at Apple, where he led iPhone and Intel Mac initiatives within the New Product Introductions group, developing the security and activation platform for the first iPhone, for which he holds patents.

After 8 years, he founded Avot Media, a video transcoding platform later acquired by Smith Micro, where he became head of the video business. Brian then joined Turner Media's seed-stage investment team, participating in 13 investments, including BleacherReport.

Now, he's the Co-Founder and CTO of Iterate.ai, where his patented low-code platform drives AI innovation for companies like Ulta Beauty and Circle K.
